

Homeland Uranium Commences Trading on TSX Venture Exchange

Vancouver, British Columbia--(Newsfile Corp. - March 12, 2025) - Homeland Uranium Corp. (TSXV: HLU) ("Homeland" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that the Company's shares will commence trading on the TSX Venture Exchange at the opening of trading today, March 12, 2025, under the symbol HLU (CUSIP: 43741D105).

The Company's common shares (under the former name Valleyview Resources Ltd. or "Valleyview") have been suspended from trading since August 16, 2024, in connection with the Company's reverse takeover (the "Shift Transaction") of Shift Rare Metals Inc. (see the news release dated March 10, 2025 which is available to review on the Company's SEDAR+ profile at www.sedarplus.ca and on the Company's website www.homeland-uranium.com). Coincident with the commencement of trading of Homeland Uranium Corp., the common shares of Valleyview will be delisted. Shareholders who held Valleyview common shares before the trading halt have had these securities automatically converted into common shares of Homeland.

The Company will now focus on the exploration of its 100% owned Redwash and Coyote Basin uranium properties (the "Redwash and Coyote Basin Properties") located in northwestern Colorado close to the border with Utah, within Moffat and Rio Blanco counties. Full details of the recently completed Shift Transaction and the Redwash and Coyote Basin Properties are contained in the Company's Filing Statement dated February 28, 2025, which is available for review on the Company's SEDAR+ profile at www.sedarplus.ca.

"The commencement of the trading of Homeland Uranium is the final milestone on our path to our transformation into a premier resourceful American-focused uranium explorer. With the transformation now complete, the Company is excited to be focusing our efforts on the exploration and development of our uranium-bearing Coyote Basin and grassroots Red Wash Projects in northern Colorado," stated Homeland Uranium President & CEO Roger Lemaitre.
