INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Shareholders of Thunder Gold Corp.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Thunder Gold Corp. (the "Company"), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as of April 30, 2025 and 2024, and the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company as of April 30, 2025 and 2024, and its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audits of the consolidated financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Material Uncertainty Related to Going Concern

We draw attention to Note 1 in the consolidated financial statements, which describe the events and conditions that indicate the existence of material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Key Audit Matter

The key audit matter communicated below is a matter arising from the current period audit of the financial statements that was communicated or required to be communicated to the audit committee and that: (1) relates to accounts or disclosures that are material to the financial statements and (2) involved our especially challenging, subjective, or complex judgments. The communication of the key audit matter does not alter in any way our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, taken as a whole, and we are not, by communicating the key audit matter below providing a separate opinion on the key audit matter or on the accounts or disclosures to which it relates.

Impairment assessment of exploration and evaluation assets

Key Audit Matter Description

The carrying value of the Company's exploration and evaluation assets amounted to $7.5 million as at April 30, 2025 ($6.6 million as at April 30, 2024). At each reporting period-end, management applies judgment in assessing whether there are any indicators of impairment relating to its exploration and evaluation assets. If there are indicators of impairment, the recoverable amount of the related exploration and evaluation asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of any impairment.

Indicators of impairment may include: (i) the period during which the Company has the right to explore in the specific area has expired during the year or will expire in the near future and is not expected to be renewed, (ii) substantive expenditure on further exploration for and evaluation of mineral resources in the specific area is neither budgeted nor planned, (iii) exploration for and evaluation of mineral resources in the specific area have not led to the discovery of commercially viable quantities of mineral resources and the Company has decided to discontinue such activities in the specific area; and (iv) sufficient data exists to indicate that the carrying amount of the resource property is unlikely to be recovered in full from successful development or by sale.

In addition, by its activities in exploration, development and production of mineral assets, the Company is exposed to the risk associated with the unpredictable nature of the financial markets as well as political risk associated with conducting operations in an emerging market. A variety of factors, including concerns surrounding unrest and conflict, could negatively impact recoverability of these assets.

Management's assessment concluded that indicators of impairment existed as at April 30, 2025 and as a result, recorded an impairment charge of $76,358 relating to multiple properties. No impairment indicators were identified by management relating to the Tower Mountain property (refer to Note 6 to the consolidated financial statements).

We considered this a key audit matter due to (i) the significance of the exploration and evaluation assets balance, and (ii) the management judgment in assessing the indicators of impairment related to its exploration and evaluation assets, which have resulted in a high degree of subjectivity in performing procedures related to the judgment applied by management.

How the Key Audit Matter Was Addressed in the Audit

Our audit procedures included, amongst others, the following:

- Performed a walkthrough to understand the Company's process related to assessment of impairment and evaluating the design of related controls.
- Tested assumptions and facts in management's impairment indicators assessment for reasonableness, including the completeness of factors that could be considered as indicators of impairment.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises Management's Discussion and Analysis.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not and will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

We obtained Management's Discussion and Analysis prior to the date of this auditor's report. If, based on the work we have performed on this other information, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact in this auditor's report. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but it is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion.
- Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the financial statements.

We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Akil Pervez.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
For the years ended April 30, 2025 and 2024
(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

1. NATURE AND CONTINUANCE OF OPERATIONS

The Company is incorporated in British Columbia, Canada and is primarily involved in the acquisition and exploration of mineral properties in the Provinces of Ontario and Newfoundland & Labrador, Canada. The address of its corporate office and principal place of business is 128-1100 Memorial Avenue, Thunder Bay, Ontario, Canada, P7B 4A3. The Company's common shares are listed for trading on the TSX Venture Exchange ("TSX-V"), under the symbol 'TGOL' and on the OTC-QB under the symbol 'TGOLF'.

At the date of these financial statements, the Company has not been able to identify a known body of commercial grade ore on any of its properties. The ability of the Company to recover the costs it has incurred to date on these properties is dependent upon the Company being able to identify a commercial ore body, to finance its exploration and development costs and to resolve any environmental, regulatory, or other constraints which may hinder the successful development of the property. Although the Company is unaware of any defects in its title to its mineral properties, no guarantee can be made that none exist.

These financial statements have been prepared on the basis of a going concern, which presumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. In assessing whether the going concern assumption is appropriate, management takes into account all available information about the future, which is at least, but is not limited to, twelve months from the end of the reporting period. Management is aware, in making its assessment, of material uncertainties related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt upon the entity's ability to continue as going concern as described in the following paragraph. Accordingly, these financial statements do not give effect to adjustments that would be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern and therefore be required to realize its assets and liquidate its liabilities and commitments in other than the normal course of business and at amounts different from those in the accompanying financial statements. These adjustments could be material.

The Company has a need for financing for working capital, and the exploration and development of its properties. The ability of the Company to continue operations is dependent upon the continued financial support of its shareholders, other investors and lenders, and the successful development of the Company's interests in the mineral properties in which it holds interests. The Company has not determined whether any of the properties contain mineral reserves that are economically recoverable. It is not possible to predict whether financing efforts will be successful or if the Company will attain profitable levels of operations. Since inception, the Company has incurred cumulative operating losses of $5,301,758 and expects to incur further losses in the development of its business, and at April 30, 2025 has no source of operating revenue.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a) Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") and interpretations of the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee ("IFRIC").

b) Basis of preparation

These financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis. The presentation and functional currency of the Company and its subsidiaries is the Canadian dollar ("C$"). These financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary 1191557 Ontario Corp.

All transactions and balances between the Company and its subsidiaries are eliminated on consolidation. Amounts reported in the financial statements of the subsidiaries have been adjusted where necessary to ensure consistency with the accounting principles adopted by the Company.

THUNDER GOLD CORP. (formerly White Metal Resources Corp.)

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

c) Significant accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of the Company's financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Estimates and assumptions are continuously evaluated and are based on management's experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. However, actual outcomes can differ from these estimates. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

Critical judgements in applying accounting policies:

The following are critical judgments that management has made in the process of applying accounting policies and that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in these financial statements:

- The determination that the Company will continue as a going concern for the next year; and
- The determination that there have been no events or changes in circumstances that indicate that the carrying amounts of exploration and evaluation assets may not be recoverable.

d) Exploration and evaluation assets

Once a permit to explore an area has been secured, exploration and evaluation expenditures are capitalized to exploration and evaluation assets and classified as a non-current asset.

Exploration expenditures relate to the initial search for mineral deposits with economic potential and to detailed assessments of deposits or other projects that have been identified as having economic potential.

Exploration expenditure costs incurred are included in exploration and evaluation assets and these include any cash consideration and advance earn-in payments and the fair market value of shares issued, if any, related to the mineral property interests. Properties acquired under option agreements, whereby payments are made at the sole discretion of the Company, are recorded in the accounts when the payments are made.

The proceeds received related to any property options granted are recorded at fair value and offset the deferred costs applicable to these interests accordingly, with any amounts in excess of such balances reported in current income.

All capitalized exploration and evaluation expenditures are monitored for indications of impairment. Where a potential impairment is indicated, assessments are performed for each area of interest, as described in note 2(g). To the extent that an expenditure is not expected to be recovered, it is charged to comprehensive income.

Once an economically viable reserve has been determined for an area and the decision to proceed with development has been approved, exploration and evaluation assets attributable to that area are first tested for impairment and then reclassified to construction in progress within property, plant and equipment.

Subsequent recovery of the resulting carrying value depends on successful development or sale of the undeveloped project. If a project does not prove viable, all irrecoverable costs associated with the project net of any impairment provisions are written off.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the years ended April 30, 2025 and 2024

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

e) Investment income

The Company recognizes in operating income interest income as earned, dividends when declared, and marketable security gains and losses when realized. Interest income includes amortization of any premium or discount recognized at date of purchase. Realized gains and losses represent the difference between the amounts received through the sale of marketable securities and their respective cost base. Unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale marketable securities are recorded in other comprehensive income and recognized in operations when realized.

Transaction costs are included in the acquisition cost of individual marketable securities and recognized as part of the realized gains or losses when they are sold or written down. Direct investment expenses such as external custodial and management fees, as well as internal investment management expenses, are netted against investment income.

f) Marketable securities

Marketable securities, consisting of common shares of public companies, are classified as subsequently measured through profit and loss, and reported at market value. At the end of each reporting period, management determines if there has been a change in the market value of the security and records an adjustment to market value, with the offsetting debit or credit to change in fair value on marketable securities in the statements of comprehensive loss.

g) Impairment

At each reporting period, management reviews all assets for indicators of impairment. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated to determine the extent of the impairment, if any. The recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. Fair value is determined as the amount that would be obtained from the sale of the asset in an arm's length transaction. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value. If the recoverable amount of the asset is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset is reduced to its recoverable amount and the impairment loss is recognized in the profit or loss for that period. For an asset that does not generate largely independent cash inflows, the recoverable amount is determined for the cash generating unit to which that asset belongs.

Past impairments are also considered at each reporting period and where there is an indication that an impairment loss may have decreased, the recoverable amount is calculated as outlined above to determine the extent of the recovery. If the recoverable amount of the asset is more than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to its recoverable amount and the impairment loss is reversed in the profit or loss for that period. The increased carrying amount due to reversal will not be more than what the depreciated historical cost would have been if the impairment had not been recognized.

h) Share capital

The Company records in share capital proceeds from share issuances, net of issue costs and any tax effects. The fair value of common shares issued as consideration for mineral properties is based on the trading price of those shares on the TSX-V on the date of the agreement to issue shares as determined by the Board of Directors. Stock options and other equity instruments issued as purchase consideration in non-monetary transactions are recorded at fair value determined by management using the Black-Scholes option pricing model.

i) Share-based payments

The Company's Stock Option Plan allows employees and consultants to acquire shares of the Company. Share-based payments to employees are measured at the fair value of the instruments issued and amortized over the vesting periods. Share-based payments to non-employees are measured at the fair value of the goods or services received or the fair value of the equity instruments issued, if it is determined the fair value of the goods or services cannot be reliably measured, and are recorded at the date the goods or services are received. The fair value of the share-based payment is measured using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The fair value of the share-based payment is recognized as an expense or capitalized to exploration and evaluation assets with a corresponding increase in contributed surplus. Consideration received on the exercise of stock options is recorded as share capital and the related contributed surplus amount is transferred to share capital.

j) Income taxes

The Company uses the balance sheet method of accounting for income taxes. Under the balance sheet method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using substantively enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Deferred income tax assets also result from unused loss carry forwards, resource-related pools and other deductions. A deferred tax asset is recognized for unused tax losses, tax credits and deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be utilized. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

k) Flow-through shares

Under Canadian income tax legislation, a company is permitted to issue flow-through shares whereby the Company agrees to incur qualifying expenditures and renounce the related income tax deductions to the investors. For accounting purposes, the proceeds from the issuance of these shares are allocated between the offering of shares and the sale of tax benefits. The allocation is made based on the difference between the quoted market price of the shares and the amount the investor pays for the shares. A liability is recognized for this difference. The liability is reduced and this reduction is recorded in revenue as the eligible expenditures are incurred.

l) Loss per share

Basic loss per share is calculated by dividing the loss available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding in the period. Diluted loss per share is calculated by the treasury stock method. Under the treasury stock method, the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the calculation of diluted loss per share assumes that the proceeds to be received on the exercise of dilutive share options and warrants are used to repurchase common shares at the average market price during the period. Where the effects of including all outstanding options and warrants would be anti-dilutive, no dilution is calculated and the diluted loss per share is presented as the same as basic loss per share.

m) Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognized when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of a financial instrument. On initial recognition, financial assets are classified and measured at amortized cost, fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL") or fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI").

A financial asset is measured at amortized cost if it meets both of the following conditions and is not designated as at FVTPL: (i) it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets to collect contractual cash flows, and (ii) its contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

A debt instrument is measured at FVOCI if it meets both of the following conditions and is not designated as at FVTPL: (i) it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets, and (ii) its contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities classified as FVTPL) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities classified as FVTPL are recognized immediately in the statement of loss and comprehensive loss.

The Company's financial instruments are classified and subsequently measured as follows:

Account	Classification
Cash	FVTPL
Amounts receivable (excluding sales tax receivable)	Amortized cost
Marketable securities	FVTPL
Reclamation bonds	Amortized cost
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	Amortized cost

Impairment

The Company recognizes an allowance using the Expected Credit Loss ("ECL") model on financial assets classified as amortized cost. The Company has elected to use the simplified approach for measuring ECL by using a lifetime expected loss allowance for all amounts recoverable. Under this model, impairment provisions are based on credit risk characteristics and days past due. When there is no reasonable expectation of collection, financial assets classified as amortized cost are written off. Indications of credit risk arise based on failure to pay and other factors. Should objective events occur after an impairment loss is recognized, a reversal of impairment is recognized in the statement of loss and comprehensive loss. Refer also to (n) below

n) Property and equipment

Purchased property and equipment are carried at acquisition cost less subsequent depreciation and impairment losses. Depreciation is recognized on a declining balance basis to write down the cost or valuation less estimated residual value of property and equipment. The depreciation rates generally applicable are:

Computer equipment	45%
General equipment	20%

IFRS 16, Leases

IFRS 16 introduces a single lessee accounting model and requires a lessee to recognize right of use assets and liabilities for leases. The Company elected to apply IFRS 16 using a modified retrospective approach; therefore, the comparative information has not been restated and continues to be reported under IAS 17, Leases. The details of the new accounting policy and the impact of the policy change are described below.

At inception of a contract, the Company must assess whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset over a period of time in exchange for consideration. The Company must assess whether the contract involves the use of an identified asset, whether it has the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from the use of the asset during the term of the contract and if it has the right to direct the use of the asset.

As a lessee, the Company recognizes a right-of-use asset and a lease liability at the commencement date of the lease.

Right-of-use asset

The right-of-use asset is initially measured at cost, which is comprised of the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made and any initial direct costs incurred at or before the commencement date, plus any decommissioning and restoration costs, less any lease incentives received.

The right-of-use asset is subsequently depreciated from the commencement date to the earlier of the end of the lease term, or the end of the useful life of the asset. In addition, the right-of-use asset may be reduced due to impairment losses, if any, and adjusted for certain re-measurements of the lease liability.

Lease liability

A lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date discounted by the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, the incremental borrowing rate. The lease liability is subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

Lease payments included in the measurement of the lease liability comprise: fixed payments; variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate; amounts expected to be payable under any residual value guarantee; the exercise price under any purchase option that the Company would be reasonably certain to exercise; lease payments in any optional renewal period if the Company is reasonably certain to exercise an extension option; and penalties for any early termination of a lease unless the Company is reasonably certain not to terminate early. The Company has not included non-lease components related to premises leases in the determination of the lease liability.

The Company has elected not to recognize right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that have a lease term of twelve months or less and leases of low-value assets. The lease payments associated with these leases are charged directly to income on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company had no leases requiring recognition under IFRS 16.

3. RESTRICTION ON THE USE OF CASH

During the year ended April 30, 2025 and 2024, the Company issued no common shares that were designated as being flow-through shares. One of the conditions of issuing flow-through shares is that the Company is required to retain the gross cash proceeds for the exclusive purpose of incurring qualified Canadian exploration expenditures, and not for other purposes.

b) Other Properties

The Company also retains certain other early-stage mineral property interests and significant transactions involving them are noted here:

PEN Gold Property, Ontario

The 100% owned PEN Gold property was acquired by staking in 2019 and consists of 226 single cell mining claims covering 4,635 hectares. The property is located 275 km northeast of Thunder Bay, Ontario and less than 1 km east of Geraldton, ON. During the year ended April 30, 2024 the Company determined that no further work would be completed at PEN and as a result, impaired $113,575 in deferred exploration and evaluation expenditures.

Far Lake Copper-Silver Property, Ontario

During the year ended April 30, 2018, the Company acquired by staking a 100% interest in the Far Lake Copper-Silver Property located approximately 80 km northwest of Thunder Bay, Ontario.

During the year ended April 30, 2021, the Company signed a letter of intent ("LOI") with Benton Resources Inc., ("Benton") for Benton to earn up to a 70% interest in the Far Lake Copper-Silver Project (the "Project"). Under the terms of the LOI, Benton would acquire from the Company in an initial option for a 60% interest in the Project (the "Initial Option"), followed initially by a second option to acquire an additional 10% interest in the Project but which was cancelled as part of the amendment more fully described below.

Initial Option: It is contemplated that Benton may exercise the Initial Option by completing the following:

- Paying $25,000 and issuing 300,000 common shares to the Company within three days of receipt of TSX-V approval for the LOI (received);
- Completing $200,000 of exploration expenditures on the Project on or before the first anniversary of execution of the LOI (completed);
- Paying $30,000 and issuing 400,000 common shares to the Company on or before the first anniversary of execution of the LOI (received);
- Completing an additional $200,000 of exploration expenditures on the Project on or before the second anniversary of execution of the LOI (completed);
- Paying $50,000 and issuing 400,000 common shares to the Company on or before the second anniversary of execution of the LOI (amended as per below);
- Completing an additional $300,000 of exploration expenditures on the Project on or before the third anniversary of execution of the LOI (completed);
- Paying $100,000 and issuing 500,000 common shares to the Company on or before the third anniversary of execution of the LOI (amended as per below); and
- Completing an additional $300,000 of exploration expenditures on the Project on or before the fourth anniversary of execution of the LOI (completed).

During the year ended April 30, 2023, the Company and Benton amended the Far Lake option agreement. Pursuant to the Amending Agreement, Benton may exercise the Initial Option, earning a 60% interest in Far Lake, by paying $25,000 and issuing 200,000 shares to Thunder Gold (originally $150,000 and 900,000 shares required) by July 15, 2022 (received). Benton previously completed the $1.0 million of exploration expenditures required to exercise the Initial Option. The Second Option in the original agreement has been eliminated such that Benton is limited to earning a 60% interest in Far Lake.

Having exercised the Initial Option, Benton has agreed to spend the first $150,000 in exploration expenditures within 24 months and thereafter Benton and the Company will form a joint venture with terms consistent with usual industry practice for further development of Far Lake, with Benton having an initial 60% interest and the Company having an initial 40% interest in the joint venture. The agreement governing the joint venture will contain provisions which provide for dilution for non-participation in programs including a provision for participant's interest to be converted to a 2.0% NSR if its interest is diluted to less than 10%, half of which can be purchased by the non-diluted party for $1.0 million at any time.

Pickle Lake Gold Project Royalty Interests, Ontario

The Pickle Lake gold properties consist of four claims packages in the Pickle Lake area, Ontario:

- Dorothy-Dobie Lake Property
- Kasagiminnis Lake Property
- South Limb Property
- Pickle Lake West Property

During fiscal 2019, the Company disposed of its previous ownership interests in these properties to Ardiden Limited ("Ardiden"), an Australian public company, for consideration which included certain royalty interests.

The Company maintains the right to purchase the existing 1% NSR held by Murchison Minerals Ltd. on certain claims within the Dorothy-Dobie and Kasagiminnis properties, pursuant to which 0.5% can be purchased for $1,000,000 and the second 0.5% can be purchased for $1,500,000. The Company holds a 1% NSR on certain other claims located within the Dorothy-Dobie claim group. The Company also retains a 2% NSR on the 100%-owned West Pickle and South Limb

During the year ended April 30, 2019, the Company executed an option agreement with Sokoman Minerals Corp. ("Sokoman") to acquire a 100% interest in the Startrek Gold-Antimony Project ("Startrek Property") located east of Benton in central Newfoundland. The property consists of 278 claim units (220 of which were staked by the Company) covering 69,270 hectares. The Company also has the right to acquire the remaining 0.5% NSR from Sokoman by paying Sokoman $175,000 and issuing that amount of shares equaling a value of $250,000.

The property is also subject to a 2.0% NSR in favour of the original owner, of which the Company will have the right to exercise Sokoman's right to purchase half (1.0%) for $1,000,000 at any time by paying Sokoman a further $175,000 and issuing Company common shares with a value of $250,000.

- Issuing one million common shares of the Optionee, should the Optionee become a publicly listed entity or, in the event the Optionee transfers its interest in the property to a publicly listed entity, issuing one million shares in the company acquiring the Optionee's interest in the property;
- Making a one-time cash payment of $1,000,000 upon achieving commercial production from the property.

During the year ended April 30, 2025, Stares Contracting Corp. returned the Startrek property to the Company and terminated the option. The extension of time deposit on hand with the Government of Newfoundland totalling $69,674 expired and was recorded as an impairment loss in the current year. The Company now owns a 100% interest in the 58 mineral claims comprising the Property. Currently, the Company does not have any exploration activity planned for the upcoming field seasons.

16. RESTATEMENT OF PREVIOUSLY ISSUED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

During the year ended April 30, 2024, management determined that the consolidated financial statements for the year ended April 30, 2023 required restatement to correct for the accounting of the following matters.

Adjustments were made for the year ended April 30, 2023 to correct the following:

- It was determined that the convertible promissory note issued to the Company during fiscal 2023 by Iron Bull as partial consideration for the disposition of the Company's shareholdings in Aloe 238 does not meet the criteria for asset recognition on the Company's balance sheet at this time as the recoverability of this amount is contingent upon Iron Bull completing a listing of its common voting shares on a recognized stock exchange. As a result, the $1,357,800 convertible promissory note recorded at April 30, 2023 was eliminated along with a corresponding reduction in the gain on disposition of subsidiaries in the amount of $1,361,500 as well as the elimination of $3,700 in foreign exchange losses. In addition, the Company had provided for a Namibian income tax liability that included the convertible promissory note as proceeds on disposal of its interest in Aloe 238. This liability was reduced by $439,479 with a corresponding reduction in the provision for income taxes in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive by $439,479.

The effects of the restatement on the consolidated statement of financial position as at April 30, 2023 is summarized below:
