

Alithya announces CFO Departure

MONTREAL, March 26, 2025 - Alithya Group inc. (TSX: ALYA) (“Alithya” or the “Company”) announces that Nicolas Lavoie, Chief Financial Officer (“CFO”), is leaving the Company for personal reasons.

Mr. Lavoie will remain with the Company until April 23, 2025, to ensure an orderly transition. The Company has engaged an executive search firm to assist in recruiting a new CFO. Effective immediately, Debbie Di Gregorio has been appointed Interim CFO while the Company conducts its CFO search. Ms. Di Gregorio joined Alithya in October 2018 as Vice President, Finance, and served as Interim CFO from June 28, 2024 to December 8, 2024. Prior to joining the Company, Ms. Di Gregorio held senior finance positions, including Vice President Audit, at Richter, an independent Canadian financial consulting and accounting firm, for almost 25 years. Ms. Di Gregorio is a Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA), holds a Graduate Diploma in Accounting from McGill University, and a Bachelor of Commerce degree from Concordia University.

“Debbie has a deep understanding of Alithya’s business and over the past 6 years has been a trusted pillar for the finance and operational teams, and for the board of directors. As we undertake the search process for a replacement, I look forward to continuing to work with Debbie.” said Paul Raymond, Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Lavoie is stepping down for personal reasons, and not due to any disagreement with the Company or the board of directors regarding its financial results, accounting principles, or financial statement disclosures. The Company expects to report its results for the quarter and year ending March 31, 2025 in mid-June 2025.
