Cannara Announces Extension of BMO Credit Facility and Convertible Debenture to Enhance Financial Flexibility and Support Execution of its Long-Term Strategy

MONTREAL, QUÉBEC – February 24, 2025 – Cannara Biotech Inc. (“Cannara”, “the Company”, “us” or “we”) (TSXV: LOVE) (OTCQB: LOVFF) (FRA: 8CB0), a vertically integrated producer of premium-grade cannabis and derivative product offerings at affordable prices with two mega facilities based in Québec spanning over 1,650,000 sq. ft., is pleased to announce the extension and related amendments to its existing credit agreement with the Bank of Montreal (“BMO”) and convertible debenture originally issued on June 21, 2021, as amended on August 31, 2023, and January 30, 2024, in the total initial principal amount of $5.7 million to Olymbec Investments Inc. (“Olymbec”, and collectively the “Olymbec Convertible Debenture”), designed to optimize the Company’s financial position and enhance its ability to execute its long-term strategy.

“Securing the extension of our credit facility with BMO, one of Canada’s largest and most reputable financial institutions, and Olymbec, one of Cannara’s largest shareholders, highlights their confidence in Cannara’s long-term growth strategy and operational excellence. This support provides us with the financial flexibility to continue executing on our strategic objectives while maintaining a disciplined approach to growth,” said Nicholas Sosiak, Chief Financial Officer of Cannara.

First Amendment to Amended and Restated Credit Agreement

The Company announced today that it has completed an agreement to amend and restate its existing credit agreement with BMO acting as administrative agent, lead arranger, syndication agent and sole bookrunner (the “Restated Credit Facility”).

The key changes represented by the Restated Credit Facility are described below. All terms are as defined in the Restated Credit Facility.

- Term Extension: The maturity date of the Restated Credit Facility has been extended to December 31, 2027
- Debt Structure Adjustments: The Restated Credit Facility provides for a streamlined debt structure, consolidating the Company’s borrowing facilities as follows: (i) a term loan facility provided by Bank of Montreal with a total commitment of $34.8 million (ii) a $10 million revolving credit facility which is intended to be used for general working capital purposes and (iii) $5.6 million letter of credit to a provincial service provider to support the supply of electricity.
- Updated Financial Covenants: The Restated Credit Facility also reflects revised covenants which provide the Company with the flexibility and liquidity to continue its track record of strong growth and support execution of its long-term strategy.

All other original terms and conditions of the BMO credit facility remain in full force and effect. For a full description of the BMO Restated Credit Facility, please refer to the Company’s Annual Information Form for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2024. A copy of the Restated Credit Facility will be filed under the Company’s profile on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca.

Third Convertible Debenture Amendment

The Company concurrently announced that the terms of its convertible debenture originally issued on June 21, 2021, as amended on August 31, 2023, and January 30, 2024, in the total initial principal amount of $5.7 million (the “Olymbec Convertible Debenture”), have been amended by Olymbec Investments Inc. (“Olymbec”) to extend the convertible debenture term (the “Third Convertible Debenture Amendment”), subject to the approval of the TSX Venture Exchange (the “TSXV”). The key changes represented by the Third Convertible Debenture Amendment are as follows:

- Term Extension: The maturity date of the Olymbec Convertible Debenture has been extended to March 31, 2028.
- Right to Demand Partial Repayment: Olymbec shall have the right to demand a first partial repayment of up to $1 million of the Olymbec Convertible Debenture subject to BMO’s approval. Olymbec shall also have the right to demand a second partial repayment on September 30, 2025, of an amount equal to half of the principal amount then outstanding.
- Javaa Convertible Debenture: Pursuant to an agreement signed with Javaa Private Equity Inc. (“Javaa”), concurrently with the execution of the Third Convertible Debenture Amendment, a new unsecured convertible debenture (the “Javaa Convertible Debenture”) is anticipated be issued on or about September 29, 2025, by the Company to Javaa, in the principal amount equal to the amount required to satisfy Olymbec’s demand for the second partial repayment pursuant to the Third Convertible Debenture Amendment. The Javaa Convertible Debenture will have an initial maturity date of March 31, 2028, at the same interest rate as the Olymbec Convertible Debenture.
- Interest: As previously disclosed in Cannara’s management discussion & analysis for the three-month period ended November 30, 2024, the Olymbec Convertible Debenture bears an interest rate of 10.75% per annum, compounded semi-annually effective January 31, 2025. Interest incurred prior to September 30, 2025, will be due and payable in cash, or in common shares, or in a combination thereof, at a conversion price of $1.80 per share, at the choice of the Company, subject to the approval of the TSXV. Following September 30, 2025, interest shall be paid quarterly in cash at an interest rate of 10.75% per annum.

All other terms and conditions of the Olymbec Convertible Debenture remain in full force and effect. For a full description of the Olymbec Convertible Debenture, please refer to the Company’s Annual Information Form for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2024.

Javaa is owned and controlled by Zohar Krivorot, the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Accordingly, the future issuance of the Javaa Convertible Debenture may be considered a “related party transaction” pursuant to Multilateral Instrument 61-101 – Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions (“MI 61-101”). The Company intends to rely on exemptions from the valuation and the minority approval requirements of MI 61-101 provided for in subsections 5.5(a) and 5.7(1)(a) of MI 61-101, respectively, as the future Javaa Convertible Debenture is not anticipated to represent additional consideration of a market value exceeding more than 25% of the Company’s market capitalization as determined in accordance with MI 61-101.

Mr. Derek Stern, a non-independent director of the Company, holds a significant interest in Olymbec, the holder of the convertible debenture. Accordingly, the Convertible Debenture Amendments are considered a “related party transaction” pursuant to MI 61-101. The Company intends to rely on exemptions from the valuation and the minority approval requirements of MI 61-101 provided for in subsections 5.5(a) and 5.7(1)(a) of MI 61-101, respectively, as the Convertible Debenture Amendments do not represent additional consideration of a market value exceeding more than 25% of the Company’s market capitalization as determined in accordance with MI 61-101. The Third Convertible Debenture Amendment has been approved by the directors of the Company who are independent in connection with the Third Convertible Debenture Amendment.

Engagement of Market Maker Services from Integral Wealth Securities

The Company also announced it has retained Integral Wealth Securities Limited (“Integral”) to provide market-making services in accordance with TSXV policies. Integral is a private, independent Canadian Investment Regulatory Organization (CIRO) -licensed investment dealer engaged in market making, investment banking and wealth management. Headquartered in Toronto, the firm operates from seven offices across Canada. As a market maker for Cannara, Integral will strive to enhance the liquidity of, and contribute to an active and orderly market for, Cannara’s shares in accordance with the policies of the TSXV by buying and selling Cannara’s shares on the TSXV as well as other alternative Canadian trading venues.

The agreement between the Company and Integral (the “Agreement”) will commence on February 24th, 2024, for an initial term of one month and is renewable for successive one month periods thereafter. In consideration of the services provided by Integral, the Company will pay Integral a monthly fee of $6,000 from the Company’s available cash for a minimum term of one month and renewable for successive one-month terms thereafter. The agreement may be terminated after the first month of the term upon providing 30 days written notice.

The agreement contains no performance factors, and no security-based compensation is payable pursuant to the agreement. Integral is an arm’s length party to the Company, and, at the time of the agreement for Integral’s services, to the knowledge of the Company, neither Integral nor its principals have an interest, directly or indirectly, in the securities of the Company nor do they have any intent or right to acquire such an interest.

Integral will be responsible for the costs it incurs in buying and selling the Company’s common shares, and no third party will be providing funds or securities for the market-making activities. The agreement with Integral is subject to acceptance by the TSXV.

Engagement of Investor Relations-Related Services from Impaq

The Company also announced it has entered into a consulting services agreement with Impaq Capital Inc. (“Impaq”) to provide certain investor relations-related services, including conducting financial and capital markets due diligence, proactively engaging with investment professionals, preparing monthly reports, and consulting with the Company’s management on an ad hoc basis (collectively the “Impaq IR Agreement”). Based in Montreal, Quebec, Impaq provides tailored outreach programs for companies to North American based investment professionals, allowing for an increased awareness for the Company. The contract is for an initial period of 3 months beginning on February 24th, 2025, and is renewable for successive one month terms thereafter. In consideration of the services to be provided by Impaq, the Company will pay Impaq a monthly fee of $7,500.

The Impaq IR Agreement contains no performance factors, and no security-based compensation is payable pursuant to the Impaq IR Agreement. Impaq is an arm’s length party to the Company, and, at the time of the agreement for Impaq’s services, to the knowledge of the Company, neither Impaq nor its principals have an interest, directly or indirectly, in the securities of the Company, nor do they have any intent or right to acquire such interest. The agreement with Impaq is subject to acceptance by the TSXV.
