

LITHIUM CHILE PROVIDES UPDATE ON THE SALE OF ITS ARIZARO, ARGENTINA PROJECT

TSX Venture Exchange: LITH
OTC-QB: LTMCF

For Immediate Release

CALGARY, ALBERTA, September 17, 2025 - Lithium Chile Inc. (“Lithium Chile” or the “Company”) is pleased to provide an update regarding the proposed sale of its Arizaro Project located in Salta Province, Argentina.

Due Diligence and Progress Toward Definitive Agreement

Following the signing of a binding letter of intent (the “LOI”) on December 16, 2024, the Company and the Buyer have advanced steadily toward execution of a definitive agreement (the “Definitive Agreement”).

Operational due diligence was completed in February 2025, followed by delivery of the first draft of the Definitive Agreement to Lithium Chile. In June, internationally recognized advisors to the Buyer completed the financial and legal due diligence. With this extensive review complete, legal counsel for both parties began addressing the final terms of the Definitive Agreement.

The negotiations have focused on finalizing specific legal clauses and conditions precedent required for closing. The process is well advanced, with only a few items remaining under consideration. Legal teams from both groups continue to work diligently to complete the agreement as expeditiously as possible. Lithium Chile and the Buyer have reaffirmed their commitment to successfully concluding this transaction.

Special Committee Review

A committee comprised of independent directors (the “Special Committee”), established to provide oversight of the proposed transaction, has been involved in continuous reviews of the Definitive Agreement. The Special Committee approved submission of the draft agreement to the TSX Venture Exchange (the “TSXV”) for regulatory comments and feedback. This milestone represents an important advancement, bringing the Company and the Buyer closer to finalizing the Definitive Agreement.

Steve Cochrane, President & CEO of Lithium Chile, commented, “The majority of the key commercial terms have been agreed upon, and we are now progressing into the final stages of the transaction. Before execution, the Buyer will submit the Definitive Agreement to its regulatory body to obtain approval in accordance with its local requirements. With both the Special Committee and the TSXV review processes underway, we are steadily advancing toward signing this important agreement.”

This press release contains forward-looking statements concerning a proposed transaction. While there is no guarantee that the agreement will be signed, both parties have expressed a willingness and desire to see the transaction completed successfully. Investors should be aware that the transaction is contingent upon completion of customary closing conditions, and obtaining necessary governmental, regulatory, and shareholder approvals.
